

Hello November!

November is full of reasons to celebrate! From impressive student growth at Church Hill Middle School to celebrating our Gold Medal schools, we're sharing inspiring success stories, practical teaching tips, and fresh math activities. Plus, discover helpful Ascend Math resources and where to connect with us this month.

Partner School of the Month - Church Hill Middle School

Students at Church Hill Middle School in Tennessee hit the ground running! Average assessment scores increased from 39% on lesson pre-assessment tests to 91% on the post-assessments, showing impressive growth in a short period of time. Twenty percent of students have already completed one level of study, while another 22% are at least halfway to completing a level. Student are spending an average of 1.5 hours per week working in Ascend Math, demonstrating how consistent engagement can support meaningful academic growth. We are so proud of your students' progress!

I'm so proud of the seventh-grade students at Church Hill Middle School. They take Ascend seriously during math intervention and work together, sharing ideas about how to complete each lesson.
I'm delighted they were chosen to be featured in the newsletter. They have earned this recognition!

Mrs. Horne, 7th grade Special Education teacher.
